

Ky Farm Products Available to KY Schools

These Kentucky farm impact products are available either shipped or delivered to schools across Kentucky. Farm impact products are sourced, wholly or in part, from farms in Kentucky.

Creation Gardens / What Chefs Want —

Many items are next day delivery; some local produce may be harvested to order with a lead time.

If you already have an account set up, use the 'local & regional' filters on the lefthand menu to shop KY items or search by farm name. If you're already ordering through DoD and want to start ordering some local items separately, contact schools@creationgardens.com to set up a separate account and start shopping local! The following Ky farm impact products are available to order from What Chefs Want:
